the world. I am the American flag.

The price paid for my freedom is a million or more bright, beautiful, young men and women who died for me. I wrap them in my love and drape my honor over their caskets. I fly proudly over their graves, as people pray that wars might end forever.

I am the American Flag. I fly in places of learning, listening to children pledge their allegiance to me in their schoolrooms.

You see me flying in legislative halls, courthouses, and churches, as the rustle of my stars and stripes cries out to every boy and girl, every man and woman, "Dream your dreams! Dare to believe! You can make it in America!"

But, without God, my stars will be clouded, my stripes will fade, my glory will depart, and freedom will erode and die. I, the American flag, have known humiliation, too. I've been stained, torn, spit upon, and defiled by my detractors when our country was

The Arvella Schuller Scholarship fund is an endowed fund that uses the interest generated to help students who could not otherwise afford tuition and lessons in the arts. The students all attend the Crystal Cathedral Academy (K-5), Crystal Cathedral Middle School (6-8), or Crystal Cathedral High School (9-12). The school was founded by Arvella Schuller 30 years ago to teach future church musicians and artists. As such, this excellent academic institution includes the arts as part of the core curriculum for all of the students. God continues to bring students who are the most talented in the nation torn by war after war after war.

What has kept this country standing on her feet through these trying times? Where does the courage come from?

You cannot explain the courage, the faith, or the toughness of this country, without taking into account her churches, her temples, and her Bibles! More than we know, the explanation of her national strength is "In God We Trust." Today a strong surge of spiritual faith and courage is needed to keep this country powerful and great.

Pray that our country's unquenchable, indestructible, imperishable spirit of human freedom may spread to the uttermost parts of the world! God bless America!

Dr. Schuller's classic message, "I Am the American Flag," won the 1973 Principal Award (Freedoms Foundation, Valley Forge) for the most outstanding sermon in the United States. Included here is an excerpt of that poignant and timeless message.

(they perform on the Hour of Power), but who also have a love for the Lord and who earnestly seek to use their gifts for God's glory. They are a sacred trust that the Christian faculty of the Crystal Cathedral takes seriously.

As a Christian school, the Bible is taught and the students are encouraged to use their gifts for God. As a private school, parents pay tuition for their children to attend. The Arvella Schuller Scholarship fund has helped many students whose parents could not have otherwise afforded to send their children to the school or to private lessons in voice, violin, organ, piano, dance, and the visual arts. Although the fund this year helped 57 students, 28 other students needed help, but were denied for lack of funds.

On one visit together when Joann was very ill, we noticed her roommate seemed interested in us from the time we came in the room. We asked the nurse to see if she wanted prayer and the answer was a definite yes. She shared that she watched the Hour of Power and was facing another surgery. She didn't really have many relatives or friends and felt alone. We prayed with her and saw a relief and peace come over her.

I feel honored and blessed that I knew Joann Art. She encouraged me.

wedding with Ashley. Meghan, our youngest, heads off to Azusa Pacific this fall to major in music.

Now that you know a little about our family, let me tell you a little about God's call on my life to full-time Christian ministry. God has given me a passion for His Church. I believe that God puts a congregation of individuals together with just the right mixture of gifts, passions, and abilities to accomplish His purpose in their region. To help build His Church, God has called me to intentionally connect people within the body of believers, discipling them wherever they might be on their spiritual journey. He has called me to help them discover their "sweet spot" in ministry so that they can become the men and women that God has called them to be. He has called me as an equipper and an encourager so that His followers can be sent out to change the world in the name of Christ. He has called me to help develop leaders with Kingdom vision to use their influence to win others for Christ.

I look forward to serving with you in this place. "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him — but God has revealed it to us by his Spirit. The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God" (1 Corinthians 2:9-10). May God richly bless our journey together.

we heard from thousands of people around the world. Of those baptized, an amazing number have been - parents, teens, and small children - took this beautiful step of faith together. Two thirds have been from California, with one third being from out of state and other countries.

As we obtain their information, those baptized receive a Certificate of Baptism, global or local membership options, information for growing in their faith, and a pastoral call from me. The ones from California were invited to the Sunday evening "Homecoming" held last month.

Many who watched the historic service on television wrote to become global members, or to receive their "Tickets to Heaven." Some wrote just to connect and let us know that someday they dream of visiting us here in Southern California. Here are just a few of the many heartfelt comments we received from our extended Crystal Cathedral congregation:

Kathy Hill, Raleigh, NC: "For many years, I didn't think about religion or church until I...realized I might lose my parents and didn't have a true understanding of where they would go. It scared me. I went on a journey of exploration, which brought me full circle back to more traditional Christianity (and)... watching the Hour of Power has become my foundation. Having been through a divorce, lost one parent, and facing the loss of another, my newly renewed faith and commitment to God is what supports me. ...Jesus is now central to my life again. I wish I lived in CA to attend your church, but I have found that the weekly service on television has become my church. My dream is to attend the Christmas or Easter play at the Crystal Cathedral someday. In the meantime, I will continue to grow my faith and trust that God is with me during the journey. I would love to be baptized again as an adult. I am accepting God into my life as my choice this time, wanting to live my life honoring and trusting in his promises."

As I watched so many come forward and heard your message of forgiveness, I was very moved and knew who was behind such a moving testimony. It is my goal to have that type of reassurance and faith wherever I am.

Diane Brown, Hatteras, NC: "I watch your show each Sunday with my family here on the Outer Banks of North Carolina, a place some people refer to as "Hurricane Alley." Yes, even though I have experienced more than my share of storms while living on this coast, I have always known that no matter how rough, God's will shall shine in the end. In fact, three years ago our home was destroyed in Hurricane Isabel. As my husband and I stood and watched the machines tear down the remaining walls, I was struck...(that) God was showing me a sign: 'No matter...how the things of man can tear you down I will be here to pick you up, for I walk with you always.' My family (now has a) new home more beautiful than I can imagine (that) stands where the old house once stood. I pray each day that the victims of Hurricane Katrina and of the recent tornados in Kansas will be as fortunate as I am and pray for their patience and faith while God works in their lives. Please send to me five Tickets to Heaven for me my husband and children: Heath, Annie, and Savannah. I want them to be reminded each time they see it of how knowing Jesus and having Faith in God will see them through until their ticket is redeemed for their ultimate trip 'Home.'"

Joan McCracken, Littleton, CO: "I was very moved the Sunday I watched Evel Knievel. I thought at first that this was very odd that this type of person at this point in his life would do such a thing. He certainly was an unlikely candidate, so I thought. As I watched so many come forward and heard your message of forgiveness, I was very moved and knew who

Crystal Cathedral Books & Gifts: "Spotlighting Excellence"

In the May/June edition of The Church Bookstore magazine, our own Crystal Cathedral Books & Gifts store was featured in an article by Michael W. Michaelsen, Jr., in his "Best Practice: Spotlighting Excellence in Church Bookstores" column.

Highlighting the store's "Firm Foundations," "Stunning Structure," and "Unique Demands," Michaelsen noted, "As the Crystal Cathedral is the fifth most popular tourist attraction in Southern California, manager Lori McCoy acknowledged that the dual demands on the store have a 'great impact on a lot of what we do here as well as how we do it.'"

In the article, Sheila Davehauer, first-time visitor with husband Pat from North Carolina, was quoted: "Who hasn't heard of the Crystal Cathedral? I have followed Dr. Schuller's ministry practically from its start, and I have always wanted to visit this place. It really does have to be seen to (take) it all in. We couldn't leave until we got some things from here to take home. It will be fun to show people that we were here, and to bring something back."

For the complete article, and to see the store's "Top 15 Best Sellers List," go to www.thechurchbookstore.com/a.php?ArticleID=14943. Crystal Cathedral Books & Gifts, just off the Grand Lobby of the beautiful Welcoming Center, is open 9 AM to 6 PM daily.

Dr. Schuller Honored by Pi Kappa Delta

Our Founding Pastor, Dr. Robert H. Schuller, was recently selected to join the first class of honorees in the newly created Order of Attainment in Pi Kappa Delta. This Order was created to recognize men and women who were undergraduate members of Pi Kappa Delta and who have made a significant contribution in their careers.

Other members of the 2007 class of the Order of Attainment include journalist Edward R. Murrow, former Texas governor Ann Richards, renowned actor Spencer Tracy, and scientist William O. Rieke.

Dr. Sandra L. Alspach, President, Pi Kappa Delta, National, who informed Dr. Schuller of his honor, shared with Dr. Schuller, "My 80+ year old mother, who watches the Sunday morning broadcast from the Crystal Cathedral faithfully, told me that you had spoken about how your preaching career had been strengthened by your participation in speech and debate at Hope College. We are extremely proud to recognize your wonderful work in your ministry and your leadership development programs, and your positive influence on the lives of millions of people around the world through your writing and speaking. You serve as a true role model for our Pi Kappa Delta motto, 'the art of Persuasion, beautiful and just.'"

was behind such a moving testimony. It is my goal to have that type of reassurance and faith wherever I am. I ask you to pray for that in me and to pray that I accept those things that I cannot control. Thank you for a blessed message, one of faith and hope with forgiveness for all who ask."

Haydock H. Miller, Jr., Santa Fe, NM: "I was baptized as a youth, but it really did not hit home until about 22 years ago when I had become 60 and after my wife and I started watching the Crystal Cathedral Ministry very early each Sunday morning. Since that time, God has helped me in so marvelous many ways. We became Eagle Club Members about 15 years ago, (and) also joined your church when you started the out-of-town (global) memberships."

Dot Hamm, Madera, PA: "I watch you ever Sunday. Thank you very much for your help. When my husband worries about something, I tell him to give it to God and He will take care of it for him. Thank you so much for helping me to see the light and that God loves me. We had a son that was killed by a drunk driver, and I know God was with us, and I know he took him home with Him."

Jody Null, Firth, NE: "I have always believed and, with my mom and grandma, I always knew of God's love. But for all that I have gone through at work and my personal life, I see that He always is with me. Then watching the show with (Evel Knievel) just blew me away, seeing the impact that God had taken on him then the way it touched so many other people. I was amazed and feel very blessed what He has given my family and me. Even through all the hard times, I know He is trying to teach and show me something. I thank both Robert's for (ministering) to me every Sunday. In fact, I have gotten so much (encouragement from you) that, when we go to Florida for my competition in July, I'm not afraid to go for my first time on a plane and no matter what becomes of it I truly will be content for where I have come and where I will go. Thank you so much for your words you are able to share of God each week.

Julie Kennis, Philipsburg, KS: My story is very simple. I have felt lost for some time now and always felt like I wasn't complete, but when I started watching the Hour of Power, I eventually discovered what was missing in my life. It has taken awhile to figure it out, but I knew that my life needed a direction and purpose. So I finally figured out that it was Christ that was missing in my life and in my heart. I am asking for everyone's prayers to help me to stay focused on Christ. The Hour of Power has made a huge impact in my life.

Carroll King, Middleburg, FL: "Studying classical piano from a young child, my "people" skills were lacking, causing depression as a teenager. I talked with my Aunt Louise who attended the Marble Collegiate Church in Long Island where Dr. Norman Vincent Peale was minister and her faith in me will always be a blessing. I am very blessed to be a member of the Crystal Cathedral and I pray that I will one day visit you in Garden Grove...that is my prayer! God loves you and so do I!"

Legacy Club Moves Forward

By Rev. Glenn DeMaster

The Legacy Club for the Crystal Cathedral Congregation Endowment Fund has moved to a new stage in its development. A Legacy Club Investment Committee has been established to carry out the following functions for the endowment fund:

To recommend to the Leadership Team, the employment of one or more professional managers or firms who will manage the Crystal Cathedral Congregation Endowment Funds.

To monitor the performance of the employed professional managers or firms.

To protect the interests of the donors and the credibility of the Crystal Cathedral.

The following members of the congregation join me in serving on the Investment Committee: Craig Bourne, John Bradley, Baxter Duke, Evelyn Freed, Ray Jepson, Gary Mead, Sr., Charles Nunn, and Jim Poit.

Currently we have sixty-five members in the Legacy Club. These are persons who have included a gift for the Crystal Cathedral Congregation Endowment Fund in their long-range estate plans. The estimated value of these future commitments is $4-5 million dollars.

The Legacy Club has about $11,000 in cash in the fund at the present time. These funds have been invested according to a policy recommended by the Investment Committee and approved by the Leadership Team.

You are cordially invited to join the Legacy Club for the Crystal Cathedral Congregation Endowment Fund. This endowment will provide a revenue stream that will allow our church to expand into areas of ministry and mission beyond our annual budget. The Legacy Club provides an opportunity for members of our church family to express their gratitude for the impact God has made on their lives through the Crystal Cathedral Ministry.
